

Narberth Wins Third Consecutive League Title By Defeating Paoli in Final Game

Narberth gained its third consecutive championship of the Main Line League last Saturday by defeating Paoli 6 to 5 in the fifth and final game of the title series. This win also gives the borough nine its fourteenth title in twenty years of league competition.

Playing what seemed a losing battle from the very outset, Narberth oftentimes gave the 1500 fans encouragement by the obstinate resistance against the challenging foe. Narberth fought cautiously against Paoli, trailing them for the first five innings, when finally in the big sixth three runners were swept over the home plate that set the scoring at 6-5 in favor of the champions. This score by virtue of the keen defense during the remainder of the game carried on untouched, as the ninth inning, one of threats from the foe, closed the pages of Main Line League baseball for the 1930 season.

Managerial tact played a salient part in the conquest by a surprising shake-up of the Narberth line-up in the sixth frame that put new life into the Kings of the diamond. Joe McKee was slated to toe the mound and hold in check the adversary until Narberth's young pilot would revamp the batting order, sending Bill Reynolds to the mound and Jack Jeffries behind the plate and thus inject uncertainty and uneasiness among the Paoli team. Nor was this forethought in vain.

Cast Selected for 'Belinda,' First Repertory Group Play

The cast for "Belinda," the first play to be given by the Main Line Repertory Theatre this season, was selected at a meeting of the organization last week. "Belinda" in the A. A. Milne play will be portrayed by Miss Eleanor Payne, of Wynnewood. Other members of the cast will be Mrs. John Carver, of Cynwyd; Miss Dorothy Stone, of Cynwyd; Robert B. Ely, III, of Merion; George Joly, of Wynnewood, and Richard Bushnell, of Oak Lane.

The exact date for the production of "Belinda" has not been set, but it will be given at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd early in November, according to announcement this week. Robert Roland Deardon, 3d, of Jenkintown, is directing the production.

Sub-Juniors to Meet

The first meeting of the fall of the Sub-Juniors of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth will be held at Elm Hall on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All girls between the ages of 14 and 18 are cordially invited to be present.

Invite to Festival

Announcement of "Ye Olde Time Festival" has been made by the Holy Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church of Narberth. The affair will be held in the social room of the church Friday evening, October 10. All are invited to attend.

Annual Meeting of Needlework Guild, Nov. 12th

The Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will hold its annual meeting in the Narberth Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, November 12.

One of the speakers will be Miss Martha Gibbons, who has spent much time with the Grenfell Mission in Labrador.

Boro Club Preparing For County Meeting

Discuss Plans at Community Club's First Meeting Tuesday.

WILL BE AT M. E. CHURCH

The first meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth was held in the club rooms in Elm Hall on Tuesday afternoon. Plans were discussed and preparations were made for the county meeting to be held in the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church on October 23.

Mrs. Frank C. Stiefel, Vice Chairman of Hospitality, and Mrs. Edward Larney, Vice Chairman of House Committee, presided at the tea table.

The Narberth Women's Club, as well as being hostess at the county meeting, has several members who are county officers. They include Mrs. A. B. Ross, County President; Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, Parliamentarian; Mrs. H. I. McConnell, County Chairman of Juniors, and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Chairman of County Press and Publicity.

At the State Convention which will be held at Scranton, October 12 to 17, there will be a conference of the Press and Publicity Department on Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday evening there will be a Press and Publicity dinner. The speaker at the dinner will be Fred Fuller Shedd, President of the American Society of News Editors, and Editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. Mr. Shedd, who teaches several courses in Journalism at State College, has chosen for his subject "The Newspaper."

The delegates from the Narberth Women's Club to the State Convention will include Mrs. A. B. Ross, Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. William Levis, Mrs. J. W. Darville, Mrs. W. Russell Green and Mrs. W. R. Knauer.

C. E. Group to Meet

"How to Be an Endeavorer" will be the subject for discussion at the Christian Endeavor meeting at the Narberth Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. A. J. Enion will be the leader. Election of officers will take place after the discussion meeting.

Music's Playboy

Sigmund Spaeth, noted writer and lecturer on music, who was the speaker at the first fall meeting of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce at the Masonic Building, Ardmore, Tuesday evening.

B.-C. Firemen, Police Nines Battle to 12-12 Tie

What was scheduled to be the final game of the championship series between the Lower Merion-Narberth Police and the Union Fire Company of Bala-Cynwyd resulted in an impasse when darkness halted further progress of the game in the eighth inning with the score tied at 12 all.

The unusual length of the game, which started at 3 P. M. and lasted until dusk, is attributed to arguments of the police manager with the umpire over decisions.

The police started off with a bang, scoring 9 runs in three innings, but the firemen caught up to them before long. Reginald Tyson succeeded Dirks on the mound for the cops after the firemen began their heavy hitting and the Cynwyd starting pitcher, Titlow, retired in favor of George Tyson.

Another attempt to decide the champion of the police-firemen league for the season will be made when the two teams meet this Saturday at the Cynwyd School field.

Colville Speaks to Rotary

Alex Colville, Jr., president of the Philadelphia Boy Council, was the speaker Monday night at the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. He addressed the members under the direction of the vocational service committee, of which Guy Croyle is chairman.

Mr. Colville, a member of the Philadelphia Rotary Club, gave the members a review of the meaning and history of this important committee, showing how its work acts as a keynote for many of the activities of Rotary.

Party Loyalty Urged By Council Speaker

Prohibition Termed Secondary Issue By State Assembly Woman.

LEADERS ARE PRAISED

A plea for party loyalty was made by Mrs. John Y. Huber, Republican Committeewoman for North Ardmore, speaking before a meeting of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women held at the Green Lantern Lodge, Ardmore, on Monday.

Getting wholeheartedly behind the Republican party at the coming election was cited by Mrs. Huber as the important thing. "It is no time to be influenced by one's personal views," the speaker said.

Praise was accorded Montgomery County Leader Charles Johnson, State Senator James Boyd and Assemblyman Fred Peters, who, Mrs. Huber said, have served the section well.

The importance of clear thinking at this time when many grave problems confront this country and the whole world was emphasized by the speaker.

The prohibition question was termed a secondary issue by Mrs. Mabel Kirkbride, of Norristown, member of the State Assembly from the second legislative district. "The big problem confronting Republican voters in the State is maintaining party solidarity and loyalty to Republican government." The second speaker pointed out the danger which would result from the election of a Democratic governor with the turnover in office, resulting in great economic waste and the inevitable friction in the government with a Republican Legislature.

Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass, of Narberth, vice chairman of the Council, in reporting on a convention of Republican Women held at Lancaster re-

Annual Meeting Tuesday

The Annual Meeting of the Narberth Community Library Association will be held in the Library on Tuesday, October 14, at 7:30 P. M. At this time annual reports will be presented and three trustees will be elected. It is most desirable that a large number of the members of the Association should be present at this meeting. The Library holds so important a place in the community that the number determining its management should be as large as possible.

'Mulieres' Meet Monday

The newly formed auxiliary of the Narberth Fire Company, known as the "Mulieres," will hold a meeting on Monday afternoon, October 13, at 2:15 at Elm Hall. All women of the fire district are cordially invited and those who helped in the benefit dinner last year are particularly invited.

One newspaper is sending a noted humorist to Washington as its news correspondent. But he was told to get there before Congress returns so as not to lose his identity in the crowd.

West Catholic High Bows to L. M. Eleven

Rose and Rockwell Star in 19-6
Victory Over City
Team.

Lower Merion continued to win in football last Saturday by defeating a strong, aggressive eleven from West Catholic High School, 19 to 6. The Maroon team was unquestionably master of the situation after the first period nervousness had worn off and the backs began to work the criss-cross, hidden ball formation which they are using in Glenn Warner's double wing back style of play.

This is the eleventh consecutive victory for Adam's team, and they have lost not even one game since the Abington defeat of two years ago.

This victory was especially sweet to the Main Line boys, for the team from West Catholic was known to be strong, and it was destined to be one of the hardest meetings of the season. This will be the case, undoubtedly, for the boys from the city used the Rockne system with quite a degree of skill. They were not a match for the locals, however, for Adam's line crashed through to nail the ball carrier many times during the game. The shift of Knute's did not seem to worry Seaver Rose, Dominic Polilli, or any of the other huskies in the Maroon forward wall.

Perhaps the winning of the game can be credited mostly to two of Adam's R's, Rose in the line and Rockwell in the backfield. These two boys certainly gave all they had and "all" was plenty. Rose was a tower of strength in the line, and Rockwell's long run for seventy yards off tackle produced a much-needed touchdown. Captain John Pennypacker continued to lead his team in a heady way. His plays were well chosen, and his play on offense and defense is calculated to keep his mates keyed up to the proper degree of skill.

The team leaves for Cheltenham tomorrow, where they are likely to ring up a one-sided victory. Nothing can be taken for granted, however, in sports, and Adam is likely to keep the boys hustling until the last minute for a sure victory.

Christian Science Sermon

"Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, Sunday, October 12. The Golden Text is, "Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore" (Psalms 37:27).

Among the citations from the Bible is the following: "My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh" (Proverbs 4:20-22).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which reads: "Sickness, sin and death, being inharmonious, do not originate in God nor belong to His government. All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made. Therefore the only reality of sin, sickness, or death is the awful fact that unrealities seem real to human, erring belief, until God strips off their disguise" (p. 472).

PINCHOT

The Pretender

Let there be no doubt as to what is going to happen to this garrulous gentleman on November 4th---

Fix it so that we shall have done with him forever more!

Brand him for what he is---a menace to the body politic---a foe of law and order---a destroyer who seeks to fulfill his own seething ambitions with complete disregard of the peace and prosperity of the general community.

There can be no over-statement of the peril which Pennsylvania confronts if this striving man---this political opportunist---is once again allowed to gain office.

Look around you for the company he keeps---nauseate yourself with the promises he proclaims---and then decide to give him the good swift kick which is coming to all of his ilk.

And pay no attention to the Organization workers who beseech you to "line-up" for the sake of "regularity"---

They also despise him utterly, but they are out to save their own skin---you are out to save your State---and here's hoping you do it with the full force of your earnest convictions!

Narberth Theatre Notes

Joe E. Brown has the role of a $35-a-week broker's clerk loose on a vacation among millionaires, in "Top Speed," the comedy playing at the Narberth Theatre this Friday and Saturday. He plays the part of a braggart—even declaring that he won his athletic letters at both Harvard and Yale. Bernice Claire, Laura Lee and Frank McHugh are in the supporting cast.

"Numbered Men," the love story of a big jail break, is scheduled for Narberth next Monday and Tuesday. Conrad Nagel, Bernice Claire, Ralph Ince and Raymond Hackett are featured.

Comedy will again invade Narberth next Wednesday and Thursday, when "Twin Beds," with Jack Mulhall and Patsy Ruth Miller will unfold the dilemma of a bride who is separated from her husband on their wedding night.

"The Dawn Patrol," striking story of aviation and the war, is booked for next Friday and Saturday, with Richard Barthelmess.

This week-end, in the first of a series of six week-end talking pictures, Knute Rockne, famed Notre Dame coach, will explain some of the new football plays, with demonstrations, in slow motion, etc., of teams in action. Of interest to U. of P. fans will be this week's exposition of the "Hidden Ball."

The feature this Friday and Saturday at the Egyptian is "Shooting Straight," a powerful story of gambling, with Richard Dix in the leading role.

"The Border Legion," a thrilling outdoor "talkie," is scheduled for next Monday and Tuesday, with Richard Arlen, Fay Wray and Eugene Pallette in its cast of stars.

"All Quiet on the Western Front," much-discussed and praised story of the war, is to be the Egyptian's feature next Wednesday and Thursday. The best-selling novel by Erich Maria Remarque loses none of its vitality and poignancy in the "talkie." The greatest argument against war yet presented, its cast includes Lewis Ayres, Louis Wolheim and John Wray.

Win Championship at Narberth Tennis

W. R. O'Sullivan and Miss Josephine Baker Are the Victors.

COURTS WELL OCCUPIED

Championship play at Narberth's tennis courts, which saw their first season this year, at the community playground, came to a close last Sunday. W. R. O'Sullivan won the men's title by defeating Jack Cotter, 8-6, 6-2. In the semi-finals Cotter defeated Paul Lees, 6-1, 0-6, 6-4, and O'Sullivan won over H. J. Mead, 8-6, 6-2.

The previous Sunday saw Josephine Baker defeat Myra Gregory for the women's championship, 6-0, 6-1. In the mixed doubles final match Miss Baker and Paul Lees defeated Miss Gregory and Bob Graham, Jr., 6-2, 6-1.

About 270 children a day have played on the two doubles courts this season, according to William Blackledge, caretaker of the Memorial Building, who has been devoting a large part of his time to the tennis courts daily and Sunday. The children's play has been held to 15 minutes at a time during the day. In the evenings an average of forty-eight adults made use of the courts each day until standard time and lengthening shadows caused a 6 P. M. curfew. They were permitted half an hour's play at a time.

A pleasant spirit of neighborliness has pervaded the courts all season; single players, pairs and trios have teamed readily with others in doubles play, and the players and audiences have distinguished themselves for their sportsmanship and good behavior. Contributing considerably to this has been the genial Bill Blackledge. He encouraged diffident children to play tennis, lending racket and balls on occasion, and volunteering regular instruction in the game between 12 and 1 and between 5 and 6 o'clock.

The noon instruction period will be continued for the rest of the season, which will not end, according to Blackledge, until cold weather sets in. The courts are still open for play until dusk, and many are availing themselves of the privilege to exercise in the crisp air that was missed so badly by sports enthusiasts during the heat of the summer.

Capacity attendance at the two tennis courts all season has more than justified their construction; in fact, it has demonstrated that given adequate, ever-enlarged facilities, Narberth's playground can be and is being made a real community playground—in every sense of the word, and for every member of the family.

It is to be hoped that the borough's Recreation Board, which has functioned so well this year, will continue and increase its good work for next season. (By T. A. E.)

William Punessen, one of Lower Merion's best soccer players, broke his arm against the Girard College team last Saturday in a game held at the latter team's home grounds. Bill, a schoolboy from Holland, is a wonderful booter and his loss means a great deal of worry to the Junior High coaches. He will be out of the game for six weeks, the greater part of the season.

Still on the Throne

Among exploits worthy of perpetuation in the annals of baseball are those of the Narberth team, three-time winner of the Main Line League crown. Last Saturday's victory over Paoli also marked the fourteenth championship of the league for the borough nine in twenty years of competition. Not a bad record.

Great credit is due the team for their comeback at the close of the second half season. The first half of the season went according to Hoyle with Narberth on top as usual after a bad start. In the next session things went badly. Narberth's prestige was not sufficient to scare visiting teams away from home plate and the standing at the season's close found the vaunted borough nine next to the bottom of the six-team race.

Undaunted by their reverses, Narberth sailed into the championship series with Paoli with a spirit that would not be denied. It took five games to decide the fact which most Narberth fans already knew that their team was the cream of the crop in Main Line League competition, but that fact was finally impressed upon the hard-hitting band from Paoli.

Congratulations to Manager Gene Davis, who has brought home his second pennant in as many years, and to his men, who have kept Narberth very much on the baseball map.

Dr. Conway's Far-seeing Plans

The dozen suburban newspaper men who were guest recently of the Philadelphia and Western Railway were impressed with a new spirit pervading that famous old company—a spirit, in fact, which promises greatly improved transportation for Main Line commuters.

Dr. Thomas Conway, Jr., and his associates, who are now in charge of the P. & W., are known in the Philadelphia district principally as real estate developers. Their ability as traction men, however, is well-known in other parts of the country. Dr. Conway's first accomplishment in transportation was to take the bankrupt Chicago, Aurora and Elgin and build it up into a modern, high-speed interurban line.

Later the Cincinnati and Lake Erie was taken over. In this case long-distance electric transportation formed the problem. Extensive experiments produced a car of terrific power, sustained high speed and a body based on aerodynamic principles. The car has been highly successful in Ohio, and Dr. Conway hopes to evolve an equally successful car for the P. & W.

The low-slung, racy-looking red car which has been flashing up and down the right of way here will grow in a few months, it is hoped, into a high-speed car designed for the curves and the hills of the Main Line and Norristown divisions, replacing the present equipment of 1907 vintage.

The whole plan, when looked at from the viewpoint of a commuter dependent upon this transportation line, presages rapid progress. Dr. Conway's method of tackling the problem is refreshing to everyone who has had the privilege of discussing it with him. New cars will be evolved, the tracks will be banked for higher speeds, schedules will be clipped.

All this will require brains, time and money. If the plan succeeds (and the Conway interests have a habit of succeeding) it will mean a great deal in the growth of Haverford, Lower Merion, Radnor and Upper Merion Townships, to say nothing of Norristown.

"Some folks say the day of the electric car is passing," one of the executives remarked this week, "and our plan is to show conclusively that quite the reverse is true." That spirit deserves and will win public support.

A Public Nuisance

In urging its members to trim trees which overhang sidewalks, the Wynnewood Civic Association has taken a stand which may well be followed throughout Lower Merion Township and the Borough of Narberth.

There is nothing more aggravating than to have a branch knock one's hat off when walking along the street or to have one's eye in danger of being put out. There is also the nuisance of getting an unwelcome shower bath from low-hanging foliage after a rain.

The simple expedient of seeing that all trees overhanging sidewalks or paths are kept trimmed to at least the height of seven feet will do away with this annoyance.

'Need Courage in Battle With Dishes,' Mrs. Hoover

The hunter who shoots a bear and brags about it, often is not as brave as his wife who washes three pans of dishes daily and says nothing about it, was the opinion of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the President of the United States, at the 16th Annual Convention of the Girl Scouts held last week in Indianapolis. And Mrs. Hoover ought to know, for she has sparred with dishes and bears alike.

Two former presidents of the organization, Mrs. Hoover and Miss Sarah Louise Arnold, dean emeritus of Simmons College, national officers and delegates from all over the country, journeyed to the Indiana city for the three-day conference to decide upon matters of national policy. Among the delegates from the Main Line Committee was Mrs. David L. Philips, of Cynwyd.

"Washing dishes is hard work, unless there are two persons to make it easy by singing and playing games," said Mrs. Hoover. "Girl Scout leaders teach the girls to make play of their work, and I consider that part of the training one of the most important."

There was no Girl Scout organization when Mrs. Hoover was a girl, and she learned her scouting from her father, who took her on camping trips. Her first interest in the organization came in England in 1914, when her husband was chairman of the relief committee to aid Americans stranded in Europe at the outbreak of the war. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts came to the relief headquarters and volunteered to run errands and care for children, and Mrs. Hoover saw the value of the training. Upon her return to the United States, she became an active worker in the Scout movement.

The woman who has followed a mining engineer husband all over the globe is attached to the outdoor life. "The more you live out of doors, the more you get out of life," was her emphatic statement.

Hood and Massey Form New Real Estate Firm

A new real estate firm, specializing in Main Line properties, was announced this week. It is known as Hood and Massey, formed by two well-known real estate men, Charles J. Hood and Henry V. Massey.

Mr. Charles J. Hood has been dealing in Main Line Real Estate since 1900 when he was associated with Lewis T. Brooke & Son, and has been active in the development and improvement of the Main Line from Overbrook to Paoli.

For the past 10 years he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board.

Mr. Massey was for 9 years associated with Charles J. Hood & Company, subsequently organizing the firm of Henry V. Massey & Company which has been operating for 5 years. He has been active in Main Line real estate for 18 years.

The new firm will specialize in the sale of Real Estate on the Main Line, Bala-Cynwyd as well as Montgomery, Delaware and Chester Counties.

A scenario writer is said to have read 237 joke books in search of humorous material. It is not recorded that he found any.

Red Cross Appeals in Roll Call Drive

Emphasis on Higher Form of Membership Part of Program.

Plans now are being rapidly whipped into shape for the fourteenth annual roll call of the American Red Cross which, in Philadelphia and the four adjacent counties, will open November eleventh with the specific objective of increasing the Chapter memberships, especially in the higher forms of five, ten and twenty-five dollars, and of overcoming an existing deficit of more than ten thousand dollars.

The increase in memberships is necessary if the Chapter is to meet its minimum expenses. And the imperative need for securing greater revenue through this increase in memberships is stressed particularly in the report of the roll call for 1929-30 just issued by the Membership Committee of which the chairman is Colonel J. Franklin McFadden, also chairman of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the Red Cross.

This summary reveals that in Philadelphia and the adjoining counties of Bucks, Delaware, Montgomery and Chester only seven in every one hundred persons belong to the Red Cross—actually less than one-half the number of depositors in one financial institution alone in Philadelphia.

There are at present, according to the figures of the last roll call, 159,185 Red Cross members in the territory of the Chapter which represents a gain of 682 since the year previous. Total gross receipts from memberships and voluntary contributions were $238,635 from which the sum of $83,683.50 must be deducted and sent to national headquarters at Washington representing fifty cents from each membership obtained by the Chapter.

"The national organization has to expend each year part of its rapidly-diminishing capital reserve because of an inadequate national membership," Colonel McFadden explained. "The figure now is about four millions from which the national share is more than one-half million dollars too small each year to equal the national budget.

"Great credit must be given to the seven thousand five hundred volunteer roll call workers here whose efforts increased the Chapter total membership 682 over the previous year, but despite this increase in members the net revenue from the thirteenth roll call was under that of last year, and falls short over ten thousand dollars of meeting the Chapter expenditures for 1930.

"This was caused by an inadequate number of members paying dues in excess of $1 a year as compared with the year previous. The annual one-dollar-a-year members are doing their part to support the Red Cross in this territory, and appeal is made to the people in the Chapter territory who can take memberships with higher dues to enroll in $5, $10 and $25 groups with the opening of the fourteenth roll call on Armistice Day.

A review of the work done by the Red Cross in this community last year shows that the Home Service Department handled 5668 cases of ex-service men, and assisted them in obtaining from the United States Government some $300,036 divided as follows: Compensation for disability for 594 families, $178,624; adjusted compensations, 165 families, $42,652; insurance for dependents and individuals in 74 families, $78,760.

In the Nursing Department there were 75,849 visits made in the four counties outside of Philadelphia. Classes in Home Hygiene were organized, and a dental hygienist, supported largely by the Junior Red Cross, was active in the rural sections, visiting 77 country schools and treating 2801 children.

On the public highways leading into Philadelphia, 29 First Aid stations, first established in July, 1929, and added to

Autocar Makes Appointment; Exhibits at Oil Congress

H. M. Coale, vice president in charge of sales, of The Autocar Company, announced to his organization yesterday the appointment of J. A. Donnelly as Manager of the Autocar Branch in Chicago, succeeding E. F. Sayers, Assistant Sales Manager, who has been filling that position temporarily.

Announcement was also made that the company was among the exhibitors at the International Petroleum Congress and Exposition which opened in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on October 4.

Forum Discusses Ms. Sources of Testament

The manuscript sources of the New Testament, their nature, age and relative authenticity, were the principal subjects of discussion at the second meeting of the Forum last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Custer on Avon Road. There was a large attendance and Mr. Keighton's talk was followed with much interest and brought forth many questions. It was made apparent to everyone that the New Testament, as we know it, has from the earliest times been subjected to the critical and editorial judgment of copyists and compilers who selected with reverent care, from among the materials available to them, those statements which seemed to each compiler to be most worthy of acceptance and perpetuation.

The subject of that meeting was a necessary preliminary to the consideration in detail of the life of Jesus which members have selected for this season's meetings. They are using as a text book "The Life of Jesus of Nazareth," by Rush Rhees, and were requested to read the third chapter before the next meeting which will be held next Thursday evening, the 16th, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eberhardt Mueller, 208 Essex Avenue. The Forum group has no fixed membership and all of the meetings are open to any interested persons who may care to attend. It is not necessary to be studying the text book in order to join the discussions.

The census bureau reports that 842,000,000 pencils were manufactured in the United States last year. That is not surprising. Half that number, surely, disappeared from our own desk during that period.

cently, said "this is no time for Republican women to flirt with a Democratic candidate. We have one job and that is to make an X at the top of the Republican column."

Mrs. H. Tatnall Brown, of Haverford, chairman of the Lower Merion-Narberth Council, who presided at the meeting, sounded the keynote of the meeting when she said, "Keeping Pennsylvania Republican is more important than our personal feelings."

Mrs. Theodore E. Benade, of Cynwyd, was the hostess of the meeting.

Experimental Car on P. & W. Railroad

Working on Plans For Faster and More Comfortable Local Service.

That unfamiliar red car streaking along the P. & W. right of way and bearing the legend "Cincinnati & Lake Erie" has caused a lot of conversation among those living on the Main Line and Norristown branches of the P. & W. during the past few days. The inside story is of vital interest to everyone in the section concerned with their personal transportation to Philadelphia.

Here it is: Contrary to speculation this C. & L. E. car has not been lost, strayed or stolen, but has been brought here deliberately by the Conway interests, who have recently taken over the management of the P. & W. property. Thomas Conway, Jr., and his associates control the C. & L. E. Railroad which has started Ohio with an inter-urban transportation service inaugurated three months ago, heretofore undreamed of in point of speed, comfort and safety, and which has so popularized electric railway travel in its territory, as to be proclaimed the model inter-urban railroad of the United States.

A week ago one of these Tuscan red C. & L. E. cars was shipped to P. & W. for experimental purposes—as a means of working out faster and more comfortable equipment, which the new management contemplates purchasing for P. & W. Exhaustive tests are being conducted for the purpose of giving P. & W. the most modern and fastest service possible. Many minutes will eventually be saved P. & W. riders to the center of the city of Philadelphia.

All who have seen this new type of C. & L. E. car have been impressed by its flashing speed, faster than any electric train in this territory is capable of. Those who have seen its beautifully equipped and comfortable interior have had many more surprises of a pleasing nature. These new C. & L. E. cars are the last word in high speed electric railway equipment. In official tests they ran 83.3 miles per hour, but so comfortable are the riding qualities that it is difficult to realize that anything like this speed is being attained.

Certain revolutionary features of design and construction, worked out by the best railway engineers under the guidance and supervision of the Conway interests, have made possible these innovations in construction. For example, the trucks—which correspond to the chassis of an automobile—are of the so-called low-level, or under-slung type. The car therefore has the same advantages of the modern automobile, possessing a lower center of gravity and greater roadability.

Through a series of experiments conducted by the Conway management on the C. & L. E. property many principles of design were worked out resulting in remarkable riding qualities through the virtual elimination of side-sway and vertical motion while in operation.

A similar series of experiments is now under way for P. & W. Not only will the C. & L. E. car be used, but a P. & W. car body will be transferred to the C. & L. E. trucks. Also, the J. G. Brill Co. is building a special new truck for these tests to be used under a P. & W. car. This truck will embody the advantages of the low-level type of car described above.

One of the most important features of these experiments is the use of new type motors especially designed and constructed for C. & L. E. which are approximately 50 per cent. more powerful in proportion to their bulk and weight than any railway motor heretofore built. The great speed attained by these cars is made possible by these high powered motors. In order to give P. & W. the finest suburban equipment which can be constructed, extensive experiments will be made through the application of these motors to various types of trucks.

An idea of the advantages of the new equipment may be gleaned from some of the first tests to be made. The C. & L. E. car made the run from 69th St. to Norristown in twenty-three per cent. less time than the present equipment required.

Thomas Conway, Jr., and his associates took a group of publishers of Main Line, Norristown and other suburban newspapers on an inspection trip over the P. & W. property on Tuesday in the new car. A non-stop run to Norristown in 17 minutes showed that even with regular traffic, many minutes would be saved. The car resulting from the experiments is expected to be the last word in an age of speed.

Narberth Captures Third Consecutive League Title

By John Uberti

Only one atom of solace does Paoli carry back to western territory out of the welter of this grim struggle for supremacy of the Main Line League. That shred of alleviation was derived from the hitting statistics for this contest. In victory Narberth used to advantage each of the seven hits they earned off Jimmy Noblitt. Only five of these, however, went into the manufacturing of the six runs.

Paoli, on the other hand, hammered Joe McKee for six hits in his three and one-third innings of tenure of office, and six more during the reign of Bill Reynolds. And all this for only five runs. Give Narberth twelve hits in any game and they are unconquerable.

Narberth scored against Paoli three times, each inning of scoring bettering the previous tally of runs by one marker. In the sixth Narberth scored three after having counted once in the third and two in the fourth. Davis was sent to cover shortstop by Manager Madden in lieu of Henry, who had registered three errors by his name during this game, but he was also responsible for a blunder in his first chance afield when Kearney reached the initial hassock as Davis failed to hold his bounding hit. Thomas walked for the second time and both runners advanced a base on Reynolds' sacrifice hit to first base. On Humphries' third hit of the contest, Kearney scored. Jeffries was playing in favor of Burns and pounded an effective bingle that sent in Thomas with the tying tally and went on to second on Noblitt's erroneous assist to Potter at first. However, he was then expunged on third on Fleck's bid for a hit, right after McEntee's hoist to Hagey in center-field had accounted for the third and winning point by Humphries.

Bill Reynolds went to the relief of Joe McKee in the fourth after Jimmy Noblitt had returned a McKee delivery deep into port for three bases and Potter had slapped a one-bagger to center that scored Jimmy. Three outs were scored during Reynolds' residence on the pitching box. This victory marked Bill's tenth of the season in seventeen games played.

McKee Comes Through

McKee was the first character to work up the fans at the start of the activities when he loaded the bases and retired the side without a bit of damage. In this inning one man reached the coigns by virtue of an error and two by passes, as no hits featured in the loading of the bags. Paoli's big moments came in the second and fourth chukkers when they pounded McKee and Reynolds for seven hits but which stern attack merely netted them four tallies as three men died on the sacks at the termination of these two innings.

Three times Harvey Humphries, one of the veterans of the Narberth lineup, came to bat in this game and each time he hushed that same old phrase from the rival rooters, "the old man." In the garden three times Harvey perched under the towering lifts of the foemen to effect as many put-outs without a flaw and once featured in a three-man play that retired a player attempting a daring steal of third on a sacrificial hoist to right. Humphries' three hits marked the bulk of the Narberth hitting for this fray.

With two down in the alien half of the second, Girard dispatched a timely single into right-field that sent in Larkins and Noblitt with a pair of runs for a temporary lead. A counter assault by Narberth found the champions hacking into this two-run lead when McEntee batted for a two-bagger that shipped in Humphries with a run.

Paoli bunched four hits in the fourth and increased their lead to four runs as against one of the champions. Noblitt rapped McKee's first delivery to deep left for three bases and counted off Potter's single to center. Bill Reynolds went in to relieve the faltering McKee but had to yield two more hits before he could retire the side, one of these hits resulting in the tabbing of one run by Girard on Verna's single to port.

The approach of the sixth, before Narberth took their cut at the offerings of the Maddenmen 5-3. In the foreign half of this frame Davis, who replaced Henry afield, crossed with a run off Tompkins' sacrifice hit to right-field. Then in the home half of this canto, facing defeat in the eyes, Narberth went to bat with inspired hopes as Jeffries and McEntee played the stellar roles in the capturing of the conflict. Two hits, which, combined with a pair of errors and a pass, enabled the Boroughites to offset the adversary's big lead and eke out a close one-run decision. The Borough league kings did not win by a voluminous one-sided score but one run in a championship tilt is all that is necessary to cop the battle.

Inter-Ac League Gets Under Way

Four Main Line Schools Triumph in Opening Games.

FRIENDS' CENTRAL GOOD

The opening games of the Inter-academic League last Friday resulted in victories for the four Main Line schools over their rivals.

Friends' Central, with an array of former high school stars, pounded its way to a 28-0 victory over Chestnut Hill Academy. Haverford School smothered Germantown Friends under a 31-0 score; Episcopal Academy downed Penn Charter 18 to 0; and Montgomery School upset Germantown Academy 12 to 7.

Friends' Central-Chestnut Hill

Led by Frank Quinlan, who formerly sported the colors of Haverford High, and Jim Funke, erstwhile Abington High ace, the Friends' eleven scored four touchdowns in the first three periods.

Three touchdowns were credited to Quinlan, who registered the first score on a short forward pass from Funke and also tallied the last two in line bucks. Funke accounted for the second tally on a 14-yard end run. Hopkins' drop-kicking accounted for four extra points.

With an array of former high school stars, Friends' Central appears on the road to regaining its former high position among Philadelphia's scholastic elevens.

Haverford-Germantown Friends

Haverford School displayed power in smothering Germantown Friends, 31 to 0 at Wissahickon and Midvale Avenues.

The Main Liners crossed the goal line once in the first, third and fourth quarters and twice in the second period.

Straight line play was resorted to as Sam Truitt, Miller, English, Hauck and Brown went over for touchdowns in the order mentioned. Truitt made only one of the five extra point tries.

Wilson and Burton carried on for Germantown Friends, gaining most ground in advancing the ball.

Episcopal-Penn Charter

Captain Tom Slack, brilliant ball-carrier, led the attack of Episcopal Academy as the Churchmen turned back Penn Charter, 18-0, at Queen Lane as the first move in their efforts to land another title in the Inter-academic League.

Twice Slack found his way across Penn Charter's goal line, and another six-pointer was added to the total for the City Liners when Ghriskey scored in the second session.

Slack's first touchdown came in the second period when he crossed on a line plunge after his team's steady march through the opposition.

Ghriskey's six-pointer was registered in the final period, and Slack followed with another when he tallied from the 10-yard stripe.

Colson Hillier, stellar halfback of the Little Quakers, made great gains for the Penn Charter aggregation, but Harlan Statzell's boys could not count when they were within striking distance of the goal line. A fumble stopped the Queen Laners on the 1-yard line in the opening session.

Montgomery-Germantown Academy

Two touchdowns by Enders enabled Montgomery School to surprise Germantown Academy, snaring a 12-to-7 victory at Wynnewood.

Enders tallied in the first and third periods. Johnny Roberts scored the six-pointer for Germantown and also added the extra point.

One Hundred and Ninety-four Main Line Residents Included in New 'Who's Who'

One hundred and ninety-four Main Line residents, including people from every community from Merion to Paoli, are listed in the 1931-1932 edition of "Who's Who in America" which was recently published.

The representation of Main Liners in this dictionary of well-known Americans is approximately ten times that of the representation for the country as a whole. Nationally, one person out of 4000 is listed, while the proportion in this section is one out of every 400. There are 29,704 sketches of living Americans in the book.

Bryn Mawr, best represented community in the 1928-1929 edition, has relinquished the lead to Haverford, which now has 34 of its residents included to Bryn Mawr's 33. Merion is third on the list with 19. Other communities are represented by the following: Ardmore, 16; Bala-Cynwyd, 13; Villanova, 12; Wayne, 11; Narberth and St. Davids each 10; Wynnewood, 8; Berwyn, 7; Devon, 5; Paoli, 3; and Strafford and Daylesford, 1 each.

Classified according to occupations, a tabulation shows that business and the professions are about equally represented in "Who's Who" with approximately 70 each from the Main Line. Professions include doctors, lawyers, clergymen, editors, and authors, while the classification business includes merchants, railway officials, engineers, artists, bankers, and other business occupations. The third general classification, education, comprises about 50. This includes a large number of college professors and others engaged in educational pursuits.

Listees by communities are as follows:

Ardmore: Brooke M. Anspach, gynecologist; Alfred M. Collins, mfr.; Rev. John T. Faris, editor; C. Addison Harris, Jr., banker; A. Atwater Kent, mfr., inventor; E. B. Leisenring, coal operator; Edwin H. McHenry, civil engineer; Effingham B. Morris, lawyer; Ralph D. Owen, educator; Isaac R. Pennypacker, editor; Theodore W. Reath, lawyer; Philip S. ## ... You Can Have Beautiful Green Lawns and Healthy Trees

if you have them treated this fall with properly-balanced rations formulated especially for grass and tree culture

The severe dry season has seriously damaged all forms of plant life and unless you restore their vitality through proper feeding both lawns and trees will be threatened during the winter months and many will be partially destroyed in the spring.

"Evergreen" Lawn Food

AND

"Evergreen" Tree Food

"THE PROVEN RATIONS"

represent scientifically formulated rations, which are maintaining beautiful, luxuriant lawns and trees wherever used. They contain both mineral and vegetable matter in proper proportions, thus insuring both quick and lasting nutrition.

Our "Evergreen" rations can be easily applied yourself or we shall make a complete treatment. Telephone us and our representative will gladly inspect your lawns and trees and estimate the cost of treatment at no obligation.

Tells of Merion Visit in Year 1805

Methodist Meeting, Merion
Friends' Anecdotes Are Described.

BOOK PUBLISHED IN 1811

"Travels in some parts of North America," in the years 1804, 1805 and 1806—by Robert Sutcliffe, of England—published in 1811. Such is an interesting book which C. P. Cook, of Merion, has borrowed from its owner. Called to the attention of Main Line neighbors are these references of over a century ago to Merion and vicinity: 1805, 8th Month, 31st. The last five days have been spent at Merion. At this place I was told that as William Penn was once coming up from Newcastle to Philadelphia, a friend in the vessel remarked that both the wind and the tide were against them; William Penn immediately replied, that "himself had been sailing against wind and tide all his life."

9th Month, 21st. The last three weeks I continued at Merion, occasionally going to Philadelphia on business. In the afternoon of this day I visited P. A. and his wife at H. Bowman's. They are an ancient couple of plain, honest friends, both in the ministry.

9th Month, 29th. I still remained at Merion; and, this morning, attended meeting there. In the afternoon I had the curiosity to take a view of a large Methodist meeting, held near us, called a camp meeting, which had been continued about a week, almost night and day. The concourse of people was very great, and numbers of them, it was said, had come several hundred miles to attend. Many tents and huts were erected on the spot; and a great number of carriages of various descriptions, such as coaches, coachmen, chairs, covered wagons, carts, etc., were collected under the shade of a lofty forest. From some conversation I had with one of the conductors of this assembly, I understood that great exertions had been used to preserve order, especially through the night; and that, at ten o'clock in the evening, patrols went round the encampment to see that all were in their proper tents and places. . . . Their meetings had been kept up several days with almost incredible zeal, from early in the morning until late in the evening; and, even after they had withdrawn into their huts and tents, numbers of them continued in prayer through a great part of the night. . . . I observed that a great number of Negro families attended, and many of them in handsome carriages. The whole number of persons composing this meeting was said to be 5000.

10th Month, 3d. I spend the last four days at Merion. We have lately had the agreeable company of divers friends, some of whom left Philadelphia on account of the yellow fever, which prevailed in the city.

10th Month, 10th. I went to Radnor monthly meeting, at which was a couple, who were about to be married; for whose accommodation the meeting at Merion was agreed to be held on 5th day, instead of 6th; and the alteration appearing eligible for a continuance was so determined. After meeting I dined at J. H.'s, and supped and spent the evening at O. J.'s. This friend was one of those who suffered banishment on account of their supposed attachment to the British during the revolution. His sister told me that on William Penn's arrival in America he lodged at her great-grandfather's at Merion. At that time her grandfather was a boy of about 12 years old; and, being a lad of some curiosity, and not often seeing such a guest as William Penn, he privately crept to the chamber door, up a flight of steps, on the outside of the building, which was only a log-house. On peeping through the latchet-hole, he was struck with awe, in beholding this great man upon his knees, by the bedside, and could distinctly hear him in prayer, and in thanksgiving, that he was thus provided for in the wilderness. This circumstance made an impression upon the lad's mind, which was not effaced in old age.

11th Month, 22d. I visited the Indian schoolmaster and his school (in New York) and was presented with a few specimens of writing. Here I met with a little poem on an Indian boy, who was sent to Haverford College for his education. . . .

1806, 1st Month, 1st. I returned to Merion. . . . I thought it remarkable, especially at this season of the year, that, notwithstanding there was a good deal of plate in constant use, in the house where I lodged, the doors were never locked at night, nor even had any locks on them; the only fastening to the principal front door was a nail or a pin put over the latch; and even this precaution was not unfrequently omitted. From what I could learn it was generally the practice, in this neighborhood, to leave the doors unlocked, although the town stood upon one of the most public turnpike-roads in America, only about seven miles from Philadelphia, a city containing considerably more than one hundred thousand inhabitants.

1st Month, 3d. I attended Merion Preparative Meeting, where a discussion of a rather singular nature took place, by which it appeared that, adjoining to Friends' burying ground, there is another graveyard, set apart by Friends, for the use of people of other persuasions who incline to bury in it. For many years past a number of the neighboring families had availed themselves of the privilege; but not satisfied with burying only, they had taken down nearly the whole of the stones which composed the wall that separated the two graveyards; and had placed them at the head and feet of the graves, by way of tombstones, and thus the two burying grounds had nearly become one. . . . The wall was ordered to be rebuilt.

3d Month, 8th. I came from Philadelphia to Merion. The sun now having considerable power, I was struck with the loud, chirping noise that issued from every little pond or pool of water as I passed along which, I was informed, proceeded from a species of lizard that inhabits those places, and is commonly the first of the animal creation to usher in the spring. The chirping of these lizards in the spring and of the tree-frog in summer form no inconsiderable part of the rural sounds we are accustomed to hear in America; to which might be added the notes of various other kinds of frogs; particularly of the deep-toned bull frog, which in a still summer's evening, during the year, functioned in 155 accidents and gave assistance to 201 persons. This service to the traveling public is a new Red Cross activity, and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter is the first in the United States to inaugurate it in a comprehensive way.

Thirty-five classes in First Aid supplied instruction for 641 pupils, and in water life-saving classes more than six thousand junior and senior swimmers, and 4854 beginners were instructed.

Through the Red Cross Disaster Relief Committee of the Wayne Branch, co-operating with which were local relief, civic and patriotic organizations, a relief fund of more than $40,000 was obtained by public subscription for the relief of the victims of the Devon disaster.

Volunteers in the Production Department made and distributed 8900 garments to hospitals, to the families of disabled ex-service men and the Department of Public Health of Philadelphia. Of these garments 2595 were made by members of the Junior Red Cross in the sewing and industrial classes of the public schools.

The Junior Red Cross incidentally now numbers 253,199 members in the elementary and junior high schools in the Chapter area, and the voluntary Service Fund raised last year by school children amounted to more than ten thousand dollars, after paying for the Junior News and High School Service, annual subscriptions to which are necessary for junior membership. The fund was expended for the benefit of children through the Public School Health Fund, and a contribution was made also to the National Children's Fund. Part of the money was used to supply milk to the children of ex-service men and for First Aid kits in rural schools.

In the Braille Department, as a result of some 8500 hours of work given by 235 volunteers, there were transcribed 21,799 pages of Braille—the raised writing which the blind read by hand. These were bound in 184 volumes and distributed for the most part to the Free Library of Philadelphia, the Pennsylvania Institute for the Instruction of the Blind, and the Library of Congress.

Clerical service in the Chapter was aided by over three hundred volunteers who gave more than 3700 hours to the Membership Department. Two hundred and forty four of motor service also were given by individuals.

Merion in 1805 Discussed in Traveler's Book of 1811

when the wind has been favourable, I have sometimes heard at the distance of more than a mile. Although these sounds are strange to an English ear, yet there is something in them which is far from being unpleasant.

4th Month, 15th, 16th and 17th, were spent at Merion and in its neighborhood. In the economy of a family in this country, I frequently observed a practice well worthy of imitation, where soap is an expensive article. In many families it is the custom to preserve the bones that are collected in the kitchen after a meal . . . they are put into a pan . . . and some lye, made from wood ashes, is poured upon them. The pan being placed near the fire, if the lye is of sufficient strength to float an egg, it soon extracts all the fat, and dissolves the gristly parts in the course of a day or two. The bones are then taken out, and the liquor is left near the fire, and kept to a gentle boiling heat, or near it, another day or two, or until the liquor has attained a rosy consistence. It will then answer all the purposes of soap and, if a proper quantity of common salt be added, it hardens and becomes real soap. Many families in America never use any other kind.

5th Month, 2d. I attended Merion week-day meeting, and spent the afternoon pleasantly in company with R. J. and H. B., whom I assisted in planting several paper-mulberry trees, on the vacant ground near the meeting house, which were intended to be a shade for friends' horses in the summer season.

6th Month, 14th. I attended a meeting at Merion, of which public notice had been given, on account of James Simpson, a minister, who intended being there. In consequence the house was well filled, chiefly by persons of other persuasions; amongst them were one Senator, four Judges and four Magistrates, who all behaved in a becoming manner.

7th Month, 15th. Having been several times kindly invited, I dined with P. W., a respectable papermaker in the neighborhood of Merion, where I spent the afternoon pleasantly. The situation is beautifully romantic, being in a deep narrow valley, the steep hills on each side of which are covered with wood. The mill which would be considered as an extensive one even in England is almost wholly employed in making writing and writing paper, with large quantities of which he supplies the printers and stationers in Philadelphia.

Also mentioned are Falls of the Schuylkill, crops of Indian corn rising to the height of ten or twelve feet, the sawing by one Merion man and his assistant of thirty-five forest trees in one day, chiefly oak, averaging six feet in circumference, etc.

Appreciation of Music in One Form or Another Common to All, Says Dr. Sigmund Spaeth

Talks on Common Sense of Music Before Kiwanis- C. of C. Meeting.

That a real appreciation of music is possessed by or at least latent in most people was demonstrated by Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, of New York, in a talk before a joint meeting of the Main Line Kiwanis Club and the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening.

Citing the case of a Texan who, after listening to Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C Sharp Major, said that might be all right but he preferred "Hail, Hail the Gang's All Here" and "We Won't go Home Until Morning," Dr. Spaeth showed that the man's musical taste, instead of being lowbrow as he supposed, was really very good since both songs were drawn from famous music of the past. The original version of "Hail, Hail," the speaker pointed out, being the Pirates' chorus from "The Pirates of Penzance," Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, and the other a time-honored ditty, "The Duke of Marlborough," sung by French soldiers several centuries ago.

Defining music as "the organization of sound toward beauty," the speaker pointed out that rhythm, melody and harmony, the three chief elements in music, make their distinct appeals, rhythm to the feet, as a physical stimulus, melody to the heart, with its emotional appeal, and harmony to the head, with its intellectual appeal. The greatest music, Dr. Spaeth said, is that which makes a three-fold appeal.

Following his brief analysis of the fundamentals of music Dr. Spaeth, who is termed the play-boy of music by New York scribes, performed some "stunts" on the piano, concluding with his famous one of showing how the popular song of several years ago, "Yes We Have No Bananas," was built up by using parts of four famous pieces of music. These were received with much enthusiasm by the gathering.

The meeting was in charge of the Main Line Kiwanis Club and its president, Edward W. Ehmann, presided. At the speakers' table in addition to Dr. Spaeth and Mr. Ehmann were E. E. Burlingame, Richard J. Hamilton, B. C. Burlingame, Superintendent C. P. Smith and Magistrate C. H. Meredith.

Coach Richard Mattis' football team won its first start of the season last Friday against the Glen Nor High School Reserves. The team looked strong against the older boys and Harvey Buck, elected captain last week, led his mates to victory by carrying over two touchdowns and throwing a pass to Hays for the third.

Church Bowlers Swing Into Action

Several 200 Games Rolled in Opening Matches Friday.

The Narberth Church Bowling League rolled their first games last Friday evening on the alleys of the Ardmore Recreation Center. Judging from the enthusiasm exhibited by the bowlers some interesting matches are in store before the season closes.

The second game last Friday between the Lions and the Colts resulted in a tie which was eventually won by the Lions. Several 200 scores were made with Ward, of the Boosters, carrying off the honors with a high of 221.

Lower Merion Junior High School News

In Lower Merion Junior High School's annual tennis tournament held in the early fall days, Raymond Stanley, of Bryn Mawr, and Helen Sellers, of Cynwyd, won the boys' and girls' cups, respectively.

In the boys' singles division, Stanley had a tough field to combat to win the honors. Charles Harnden reached the finals and battled Stanley to three sets before losing.

Helen Sellers finally won after a gruelling match in the semi-finals with Mildred McCormick. Elfrieda Mahler won from Margaret Leaf for the honor of meeting Helen in the finals. The cups will be presented to the girls in the school assembly period.

The guests who attended the bridge party given on Tuesday by Mrs. Thomas A. Elwood, of Sabine Avenue, were Mrs. Harold H. Happold, Mrs. Carleton Woodward, the Misses Eleanor McChesney, Dorothy and Marion Babb, Mary Wilkinson and Betty Tinney.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Ellis, 822 Montgomery Avenue, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, George R. Ellis, Jr., on Thursday, September 25. Mrs. Ellis was formerly Miss Elizabeth Fabian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fabian.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Edgerton, Chestnut Avenue, entertained the newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nichols last week on their return from a honeymoon in Bermuda. Mrs. Nichols, who will be remembered as Miss May Wilkie, has left with her husband for their new home in Anderson, Indiana.

Hicks—Huston

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hathaway, of Conway Avenue, Narberth, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Huston, to Mr. Joseph Morton Hicks on Wednesday afternoon, October 1, at Wellsboro, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Sheriff, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Wellsboro, an uncle of the bridegroom.

The bride is a maternal granddaughter of the late Charles Baxter Bostock, M. R. C. V. S., of New Britain, Pa., and formerly of Manchester, England. On the paternal side she is a grandniece of the late Mrs. Charles Houston, of Chester, Pa. Mr. Hicks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks, of Philadelphia, and graduated in June from Drexel School of Electrical Engineers.

Mr. Hicks and his bride will spend their honeymoon touring Western Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland and Washington, and will be at home after November 1 at 131 State Road, Highland Park.

OUR TOWN

published weekly at Narberth, Pa., for October 1, 1930.

State of Pennsylvania, County of Montgomery, ss.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Robert M. Cameron, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor of Our Town and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership and management of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption required by Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, to wit:

1. That the name and address of the Publisher, the Editor, Managing Editor and the Business Manager are: Publisher, Livingston Publishing Company.

Editor, Robert M. Cameron. Managing Editor, same.

Business Manager, A. M. Douglas.

2. That the owner is Philip Atlee Livingston.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent. or more of total output of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: None.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 8th day of October, 1930.

FRANKLIN P. KROMER,

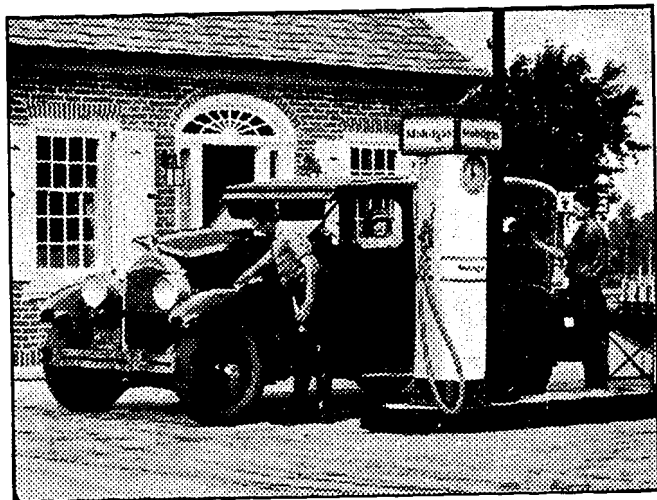

Notary Public.

My commission expires the first Monday in January, 1932.

There's much to be said about the men who are serving you so well!

Your Car should have the Type of Service these men can give it

Mobilgas, the newest gasoline, is modernized by Vacuum's process of distillation for the car you drive today. Switch for a week and let your car decide.

Specially designed slip covers protect your car while work is being done. Such details of service are indications of the thorough lubrication job done here.

Enclosed lubrication pits—so clean that even dainty frocks are safe from dirt. The most modern pressure equipment is used by our expert attendants.

A FACT which helps to explain the intelligence with which our men handle your car is that more than 80% of them came to us with a background of garage mechanical experience. Even after this they were put through a training course in the use of our special equipment. Another interesting point: Only one out of fifteen men who apply to us for positions at these stations are finally chosen.

Only men who we feel will be a credit to our ideals of service, ability, courtesy, honesty are wanted!

We were pleased to have a note from a new customer the other day, thanking us and commending an attendant for returning a lost wrist watch. Every day we get notes from customers, commenting upon the courtesy and service rendered by our attendant corps.

Naturally it is gratifying to know that we are giving customers what they want. For only when we give satisfaction to our neighbors can we hope for their patronage.

While having your tank filled with Mobilgas, the modernized gasoline, or having Mobiloil put in your crankcase, look over our modern facilities and satisfy yourself about this new and unusual lubrication service.

Time Out

By Tommy Macklin.

The Villanova Wildcat is wild. Larry Morris booted a 3-to-0 victory for Gettysburg, and then the Main Liners booted Larry into the hospital. Larry got the best of the argument, however, for two of Stuhldreher's best boys are laid up and packed away for the season. Captain Morgan, quarterback extraordinary, had his left leg broken above the ankle, and halfback Highfield accompanied his mate to the hospital with a dislocated shoulder. It must have been a good fight.

This Gettysburg victory was somewhat of a surprise to everyone but the boys from the battlefield. They knew what they came for and proceeded to tame the Wildcat in a most impressive manner.

Coach Geiges and his Haverford team took a trip to the quiet, secluded town of Collegeville, where the country-fed boys booted them around for a three-touchdown setback. Ursinus does not have a wonderful team this season and neither does Haverford. This is Geiges' first season in Harmon's role, and he has a tough time with the material left him.

Haverford High again looked like one of the suburban's best by taking over Glen-Nor by a whole lot to nothing score. Radnor lost another, this time to Upper Darby, where they say the boys know football. The boys from Wayne may be saving up for their battle with the Maroon from Lower Merion.

Lansdowne looks forward to a lean season with green material and a new coach. Frank Forstburg will need a couple of years to build up a strong team. They have a wonderful backfield over there, but no line to do the work with.

Abington had another setup last week. They run up some towering scores against the second-raters. They may be listed among the strong teams of the suburbs, though.

Norristown surprised with a win over Overbrook. That about covers the suburban situation for the second week-end. Nothing to do now until some more touchdowns are unfolded for the public today and tomorrow.

Lower Merion is still the pride of the Main Line in a football way. If you stay-at-homes want an afternoon of thrills, just follow the Maroon team the rest of the season. Those boys look the goods. They give the ticket-holder more for the money than any team since Peterson and Scull used to toy around with the pigskin in a professional way.

What makes Adam's light, fast, backfield so good is that stalwart, scrappy, brutal-looking bunch of Tarzans on the front line. From end to end the line is just about as good-humored as a bunch of longshoremen on a strike. And just about as sure to get what they want, too. The front line offense and defense weighs exactly 184 pounds average in football togs. That's the real dope and if Pennsylvania has a line that averages more, then we place our bets on Lud Wray.

Adam has learned a lot about the game of football in the past three years. His work has improved a thousand per cent., and he should receive the backing of every football fan along the Main Line who follows the fortunes of Lower Merion. He still uses the same safe and sane methods of defense, and has at last capitulated and adopted an offense that is interesting to those who pay to see.

The firemen and police battled to a 12-to-12 deadlock for the Peter C. Hess baseball cup last Saturday. If it had been filled with the proper inducement, maybe the cops would have arrested the firemen with the former in the lead and stopped the game.

Crooks and Braslau in Local Concerts

Pianist and Violinist Chosen For Third of Series at Ardmore.

MEMBERSHIP OVER 600

Four well-known artists have been engaged for the Community Concert series in Ardmore this winter, it was announced this week by the local committee. The choice was made last Tuesday at a meeting at the home of Dr. Herbert J. Tily.

Sophie Braslau, famed contralto, will be the first artist in the series. The date for her concert has not been finally fixed, but will probably be in early December. Robert Goldsand, pianist, and Sylvia Lent, violinist, will appear in a joint concert in January, and Richard Crooks, one of the most popular tenors on the concert stage, will appear in March.

All of these concerts will be given in the auditorium of the Senior High School building, Ardmore, before a membership which now numbers well over 600. Additional memberships, of which a few are still available, are being offered through the office of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce.

The choice of the approximate dates and the soloists was made October 7 at a meeting held at Dr. Tily's Cynwyd home. Twenty-five were present, including Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, director of the Community Concerts Association. A long discussion of the various artists available resulted in the choice of soloists for three concerts. A possible fourth performance will depend on the sale of additional memberships.

Requests Zoning Change For Montgomery Avenue

A request to the Narberth Borough Council to change the zoning on the south side of Montgomery Avenue, from Essex to Haverford Avenues, from a residential to a business classification was made by J. Baird Caldwell, Narberth real estate dealer, at the October meeting of council on Monday night.

The change, Mr. Caldwell pointed out, would make Narberth's side of Montgomery pike conform to the zoning established for the other side of the street by Lower Merion Township.

Council stated that no action would be taken arbitrarily in the matter and suggested that Mr. Caldwell present a petition signed by property owners on Montgomery Avenue from the portion in question before it would be considered.

Various unsuccessful attempts have been made in the past by Mr. Caldwell to obtain a variance from the action of the building inspector in refusing him a permit for the erection of a business building on his property at 841 Montgomery Avenue.

Re-elect Library Officers at Annual Meeting

All officers of the Board of Trustees of the Narberth Community Library Association were re-elected at the annual meeting of the association held at the library on Tuesday evening. Officers are: Robert E. Keighton, president; Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, vice president; Mrs. E. C. Drew, secretary, and Mrs. Clifford W. Bates, treasurer.

The reports of the librarian and treasurer for the past year were read and approved at this meeting, both of which will be published in an early issue of Our Town.

To Award Reading Prizes at Parent-Teacher Meeting

At the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association next Monday evening awards will be made by Miss Mary Church and Mrs. Robert F. Wood to members of the Summer Reading Club. Mr. Wetherall will tell about the "Summer Playground" and Mrs. Snyder, of the Child Health Centre, will speak on her work. Mrs. F. T. Van Auken will have a short report on summer round up. These meetings are held in the school building on the third Monday of each month. Anyone interested in children is invited to attend.

Warm Weather Continues

Indian summer has been experienced on the Main Line during the past week with temperatures up to 75. The lowest mercury reading for the past week was 43 degrees on October 7. Four days were reported by the weather man with a temperature in excess of the normal.

Fire On Beechwood Lane

All apparatus of the Narberth Fire Company was called out for an alarm of fire from the residence of Raymond D. Kennedy, 509 Beechwood Lane, Narberth, last Saturday at 1:45 P. M. The fire, whose origin has not been ascertained, started near a stairway, and caused damage of approximately $100. Only a chemical line was used.

Narberth to Be Host to Montgomery County Woman's Clubs Next Thursday

The annual meeting of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in the Parish Hall of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Narberth on October 23.

The morning will be devoted to reports and departmental work of the Chairmen of the County. The meeting will be adjourned at noon for a box luncheon.

In the afternoon a very interesting program has been arranged for. This includes music and well known speakers who will talk on subjects which are of interest to all club members.

All members of the Narberth Club are urged to attend to assist as hostesses to the county members attending

General Wayne Polls Moved to Nursery Office; Breaks Old Inn's Last Public Tie

When voters of the General Wayne District in Lower Merion go out to vote for Hemphill or Pinchot, according to their convictions, on November 4, they will find the polls under a new roof, the office of John Albrecht, nurseryman and florist, at Montgomery Avenue and Meetinghouse Lane.

The removal of the polls from the historic General Wayne Inn to the Albrecht office was authorized by the Montgomery County Commissioners at Norristown on Saturday morning following the presentation of a petition to them requesting the change. The petition, signed by the committeeman, W. Russell Green; the committeewoman, Mrs. Florence E. Carter, and several others, gave as reasons for desiring the change the lack of heat and light at the Inn, the fact that it had been ordered padlocked, and that it was for sale.

The transfer of the polls from the Inn is the breaking of the last public tie with the old hostelry. In 1830 the General Wayne became the first post office in Lower Merion and for many years was the only one. It has been used as a polling place and scene of township elections from early in the 19th century.

Ordered padlocked by the Montgomery County Court last spring and up for sale by its owner, John T. Odell, it may not be long before one of the most famous historic structures in the section is laid low before the rush of progress.

Robert Jones built the Inn on about an acre of ground which he bought from Edward Rees or Price for twenty shillings. The tract of which its acre was a part was bought from Penn. In fact at one time the place was known as the William Penn Inn, having been renamed for the Founder when he stopped there while attending the Quarterly Meeting at the Merion

Shull Explains Lumber to Rotary Club

The Complex subject of preparation and grading of lumber formed the subject Tuesday of a talk before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club by Alvin E. Shull, lumber dealer.

Mr. Shull gave a brief review of his own connection with the industry, and followed with a discussion of the various types of lumber, with the standards set by the Government for quality and size.

Osage orange, used for posts and police clubs, was shown to be one of the strongest woods in the country. The heart of red cedar was also explained, by the use of a sample, as an everlasting lumber stock.

Mr. Shull questioned the value of cedar-lined closets as a moth repellent, showing Government tests to back up his statement. That they are neat, and smell nice is about the only credit he would give this type of closet.

Schedule Meeting of Republican Women

The Lower Merion-Narberth Council of Republican Women, who are affiliated with the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women, will hold an open meeting in the Township Building in Ardmore on Friday evening, October 24, at 8 o'clock. The speaker will be Miss Sara M. Soffel, formerly of the department of Labor and Industry, now an Associate Judge, Allegheny Courts. Her subject will be "International Relations." Mrs. H. Tatnall Brown, Jr., is the chairman. Mrs. Leroy C. Douglass, of Narberth, Pa.; Mrs. T. W. Hammonds, of Bryn Mawr; Mrs. Theodore E. Benade, of Bala-Cynwyd; Mrs. Morris Green, Ardmore, are the vice presidents. Mrs. J. F. Scull, of Bala-Cynwyd, is recording secretary; Mrs. H. T. Leedom, of Ardmore, the corresponding secretary, and Miss Margaret Brusstar, the treasurer.

Stites to Address D. A. R.'s on Monday

Hon. Fletcher Stites will be the guest speaker at the first autumn meeting of the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, N. S. D. A. R., on Monday, at 2:30 P. M.

Mrs. Harry M. Chalfant and Mrs. Samuel MacAdams are the hostesses. The meeting will be held at the new Methodist Church, in the church parlor, the entrance to which is on Price Avenue and not through the church proper.

Little Building in Borough

Building in Narberth was practically at a standstill during September. According to the report of the Building Committee of Council read on Monday night three permits were issued for operations amounting to $836.

Cabrey Goes Democrat

To the Editor of "Our Town":

James Truslow Adams, writing in Harper's several months ago, uncovered the fact that John Hancock, said to be our original bootlegger and the Signer of many flourishes, was dubbed in his day "The Empty Barrel," despite the numerous ornate and important official positions which he held.

The appellation would seem to be a particularly apt one for use in the present campaign if a close inspection is made of the career and capabilities of James J. Davis, who is apparently going headfirst into the United States Senate with very little part of the cargo which ought to accompany a man into that august body.

Once there, we may expect to hear from him, quickly and unabashed, on divers subjects, as becomes a real past-master in platitudes, and he has already told us that he was accountable, in a way that nobody could possibly imagine, for a great part of the recent tariff legislation. If Davis does know anything at all about economics, labor problems or State lore, or has any remote grasp of the nation's pressing problems, he has kept it a pretty dark secret in his public utterances, but you would have to go far afield to find his equal as a flag-waver.

For several years he has been making cute plans to be Governor, notwithstanding that he is only a nominal resident of the State. The cards fell the other way and it suited the Vares to support him for Senator, under circumstances that enabled him to back and fill on the prohibition question to the full limit of his expediency. That he will be wet when the time comes is a foregone conclusion, as is evidenced by the fact that the Liberal party is not even making the gesture of a fight on him. With all due deference to the long time he has served in Presidential Cabinets, it is no injustice to describe the man as a petty politician, a pronounced self-seeker, nothing else, and he will go with the winds, without a doubt.

It would seem to be a great pity, however, that this type of public representative is allowed to wiggle himself through when the issues at stake are of such fundamental importance, where a shifting civilization needs intelligent rescue, and where the whole spirit of the occasion calls for the rejection of that which is insincere and unworthy. Sedgwick Kistler should be our new United States Senator. By any measure of talents, he is head and shoulders over Davis. As a manufacturer on a very large scale, he knows the industrial requirements of Pennsylvania in a manner which leaves Davis bereft. As a profound student of political philosophy, he has achieved a distinction which reveals Davis' ramblings as the meager things they are.

Long years ago, about the time when we were not sure as to which end of the breakfast we should eat the fruit, we had to do with Mr. Kistler in his home town of Lock Haven, and memory lingers of his great kindness and extraordinarily fine nature. He cannot be anything else except intellectually robust, sound and straightforward. His splendid tolerance and impressive breadth of view manifest themselves in many benefactions, one of which, of magnificent nature, has come down to our own neighborhood, and the part he plays in public life is consistently of the refreshing and selfless nature which affords vivid contrast with the adeptness which his opponent has acquired in loquaciously saying nothing. Surely Sedgwick Kistler's election would be a grand achievement for Pennsylvania, particularly as one can refrain not from feeling, as he views the record, that the all-encompassing cognomen of old John Hancock belongs in our own day and generation to none other than the same Mr. Davis whom we have been discussing.

Personally, if it is of any interest to anyone, we are going to vote the whole Democratic ticket, which will give us an opportunity to chalk one up for friend Wohlert, and that will be a real pleasure. If you vote for Hemphill Meeting next door. It was also called the Tunis Ordinary and Streeper's Tavern. In 1746 Anthony Tunis rented the place. A little later Abraham Streeper acquired it, added the three-and-a-half-story rear wing and operated a stage-house in conjunction with his Inn. The blacksmith shop across the street, which has been removed for a gas station, was a busy annex to his other lines.

Streeper was a First Lieutenant of the Pennsylvania Continental Line in active service. After the battle of the Brandywine he came home on furlough to visit his family, was captured by a scouting party from Howe's forces, and locked up in the Walnut Street Prison.

The Inn has always kept good company, for its next neighbor on the corner of Montgomery Turnpike and Meeting House Lane is the Merion Friends' Meeting, built in 1695. The building is two and a half stories of stone and plaster, and is in very much its original condition, except for additions. The white woodwork, long narrow lockers and cupboards, the graceful beaded mantels, are just as they were installed in 1704. The old tap-room, long unused, could easily be restored to its prime appearance. Leading down from it is even a great underground icehouse.

Cornwallis, or Washington or Wayne may have sat in that low ceilinged room, and enjoyed a flagon of wine, or perhaps a pewter mug of musty ale from the cool depths of the old cellar. Plastered ceilings cover the old heavy rafters, but the rooms look about as they did 100 years ago, and the steep stairway from the little entry still stands solid as the day it was built. The stone walls are twenty-six inches thick, and there are curious old double doors, scarcely a foot wide, both of which old-time landlords must have had to open whenever a wayfarer of unusual girth demanded admittance.

The Philadelphia and Columbia Railroad in 1834 crossed the Inn's property, and its stone bridge, until recently, at any rate, stood across the road from the Inn.

The first Township Commissioners held the first meeting in the General Wayne. Merion Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, held its inaugural meeting there on April 17, 1895.

Washington stopped at the Inn on September 14, 1777, on his way to Valley Forge, it is said, and its roof sheltered Lafayette on more than one occasion. A pane of glass in one of the windows of what in his day was a sitting room still bears the name of Edgar Allan Poe, inscribed by him evidently by writing with a diamond.

My Lord Cornwallis sat in one of those embrasured windows and watched his orderlies lead horses to the smithy across the road. Wayne, booted and spurred, stood at one of those old doors, and saw the Philadelphia Troopers riding up the dusty road

Autumn Motor Dangers

Autumn, that beautiful but sad time of year, brings with it a warning from the Automobile Club. Falling leaves, advises Ernest W. Tallman, general manager of the club, present a traffic hazard. The motorist should use great caution when driving over wet cement leaf-strewn roads. Early twilight, too, is responsible for a number of accidents, for it is necessary for homecoming motorists to turn on their lights earlier. That means that the lights must be in first-rate condition.

on the Liberal ticket and then pick and choose on the other candidates, you might get into trouble by inadvertently making too many marks, running the risk of a spoiled ballot. We all want to be sure this time and it seems to me that one great big X on the straight Democratic ticket will be the right way to register the heavy wallop which is so very much in order.

J. J. CABREY.

What Do the Ladies Mean By "Party Loyalty" and All the Rest of It??

Last week's Our Town printed a report of a meeting of the "Council of Republican Women" held at Ardmore.

The reporter apparently had a hard time in making it all out.

The speakers, it was stated, stressed the need of "clear thinking" and the utter elimination of "personal views."

Mrs. Brown, of Haverford, was on record as declaring "that keeping Pennsylvania Republican is more important than our personal feelings."

It is evident the ladies consider themselves party-bound even as they admit they are sore-distressed, but if they want to lead others to the same slaughter they will have to present a more convincing case.

Is Pinchot their exponent of "clear thinking"? Is Pinchot their paragon of "party loyalty"? Is Pinchot their exemplar of selfless service? And is Pinchot their idea of keeping Pennsylvania Republican?

The patent truth of the matter is that Pinchot gives the ladies a pain in the neck, the same as he does most everybody, but they feel they have to go through with it all for the sake of "regularity."

What they need is a strong dose of that "clear thinking" they recommend for others --they ought to come to know that they are NOT called upon to stultify and sacrifice themselves in the cause of a Pretender whose only interest in the Republican Party is to use it for the advancement of his own selfish, seething ambitions.

And the same ladies should not forget that we have Pinchot's own word for it that HE IS NOT A REPUBLICAN!

The call is clear, the duty plain---

Egyptian Theatre News

"The Last Yard," second in Knute Rockne's series of football "talkies," is scheduled at the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, this Friday and Saturday. Next Wednesday-Thursday-Friday-Saturday, in conjunction with "The Big House," the gridiron cinema will be "Flying Feet." Flashes of many famous teams and games are employed in the series, and some of Rockne's trick formations and plays are demonstrated by his own Notre Dame team.

The Egyptian offers a baseball comedy of which Benny Rubin is the star, this week-end. "Hot Curves" is a tale of two heroes of the diamond and their adventures in friendship, love and misunderstandings. Its cast includes Rex Lease, Pert Kelton and Alice Day.

Next Monday and Tuesday the feature will be the much-discussed "Czar of Broadway," in which a leading part is played by Betty Compson, versatile star of many hits, including the "Broadway Melody."

So big that it has been scheduled for four days—the last four of next week—is "The Big House," original and dramatic tale of a penitentiary riot. The largest sound stage on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot at Culver City was employed for filming the tremendous prison scenes.

Chester Morris, Wallace Beery and Robert Montgomery play the central roles as the convict cell mates, and Leila Hyams appears as the girl whose love redeems Morris. A sensational mess hall riot, escape of Morris in the prison morgue van, his recapture, his rescue of the guards during the riot, are salient points in the picture. Montgomery, as the college boy sent to prison for an auto accident and herded with hardened offenders until he becomes worse than they, has a remarkable part in the story. Others in the cast are Lewis Stone, Karl Dane, DeWitt Jennings, George Marion, J. C. Nugent, Claire McDowell and Mathew Betz.

to greet their hero home from his last campaign. Midway between the opposing lines, skirmishers fought their little battles around the old Inn. British generals and American generals made it their quarters. Perhaps in one of the old rooms, under the rough rafters by flickering candlelight, MacPherson and McClenahan planned raids for their privateersmen and divided the spoils. And Penn, the Founder, lent his personal atmosphere of Quaker peace, on due occasion.

Too bad that a full history of this place cannot be set down. Unfortunately indeed that such a centre of tradition, and central point of the gallant days of 1777-1778 cannot be preserved for all time as a legacy to generations of future Americans.

Save the Leaves

Burning leaves in the street, in addition to constituting a violation of Township and Borough Ordinances, is a public nuisance and economic waste, as is pointed out in a brief article in "Home Acres," the magazine of the Woman's Farm and Garden Association, which runs as follows:

"Burning leaves to get rid of them is a vicious practice. The acrid smoke from such fires irritates tender throats, and makes the neighborhood unpleasant, while you are destroying the major part of one of nature's most precious protections and fertilizers.

"Save every leaf! Let lie where they fall; leaves protect lawns, shrubbery and flower roots. Raked together in the spring old leaves make one of the most valuable of all additions to the compost heap. If you do not wish to let leaves lie where they fall, rake them up for the compost heap now. You will be richly rewarded by what they add for your garden after they have rotted and earth worms have helped turn them back into soil again. If you will not do any of these things, at least give some thrifty neighbor a chance to save your leaves, for burning is the most wanton of wastes."

Sweeping leaves out into the street is a method that should not be followed since they tend to clog sewers and drains at the first rain. Wet leaves also constitute a hazard for automobiles by skidding.

Safety For Pedestrians

Children who ride their bicycles on the sidewalks not only are violating a township ordinance, but are endangering the safety of pedestrians.

A case was called to our attention this week where a little girl riding on the sidewalk in Cynwyd bumped into a woman from the rear, without warning, knocking her down and causing her to suffer from shock as well as expense for X-rays to determine if any more serious damage was done.

Bicycles are fine things for the youngsters, but not when they are ridden on sidewalks to the imminent peril of pedestrians. Streets are dangerous enough for them without having their own domain usurped by the two-wheeled vehicles.

Beware of Imposters

Numerous reports have been received by the Social Service Department of the Main Line Federation of Churches and also by this paper of an Italian woman who has been soliciting financial assistance in the various communities along the Main Line. When last heard of she was operating in Wynnewood and Ardmore.

Investigation by the Federation of Churches has shown that it is the same woman in every case and that she gives a fictitious name and address at each home she visits. The woman refuses aid through the regular channels and is regarded as an imposter by the Federation. She is described as about 35 years of age, dark hair and eyes and of medium build. Her story is both pitiful and straightforward and therefore all the more likely to make her attempts upon the benevolence of Main Line matrons successful.

It is not right that an unworthy person should receive aid when there are many deserving cases in the section which require all the assistance that can be given. In a case such as this it is well to refer all such persons to the Main Line Federation of Churches, at Bryn Mawr, or to check up with this organization before giving assistance.

A 24-year-old son of one of the duPonts has gone to work in a Kansas pipe factory of which his father is a stockholder. "How much is your salary?" asked a reporter. "More than I am worth—$25 a week," was the reply. The young man will not be able to keep a car on this, but as he will only be there two or three months, perhaps he can manage.

Local Youth Saves Team of Horses From Runaway Baby

Injury to a fine team of horses owned by Clarence J. O'Connell, Mill Creek Road, Ardmore, was narrowly averted yesterday when a runaway baby was halted.

Hero of the daring rescue was Hugo N. Kumm, 16-year old son of Oscar R. K. Meek, 176 North Newfield Way, Bala.

Young Kumm was returning to his home yesterday afternoon from the Lower Merion High School at Ardmore, where he is a member of the junior class, when he saw the baby, in its coach, dashing headlong down the steep hill on Essex Avenue, Narberth, below Price Avenue.

Leaping from the bus in which he was a passenger, the lad darted in pursuit of the baby, and halted it just as the coach was about to run over the horses, which were placidly browsing in the foliage in front of Narberth Hall, at Essex near Woodbine Avenue.

Officer James Maxwell, who had been attending the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church, joined in the pursuit, and reached the scene of the near-accident as young Kumm seized the coach with one hand and the baby with another, halting the two simultaneously.

Charges against the baby were preferred by Officer Maxwell at Lower Merion police headquarters in Ardmore before Acting Magistrate P. P. V. Fathcr. Disorderly conduct, reckless driving and exceeding the borough's speed limit were among the complaints. "Must have been going over 16 miles an hour," the officer declared, "and the coach was coasting—out of gear—and with inadequate brakes—very dangerous case."

It is conjectured that the baby took advantage of the temporary absence of his mother or nurse-maid, and commenced his wild ride down the hill in a deliberate attempt to bump off the horses.

"There was a wild gleam in his eye," one witness declared later; "he waved his rattle fiercely and shook his fist."

According to Mr. O'Connell, the owner of the team, charges of malicious mischief will be preferred by him if no explanation is forthcoming from the baby, who since his arrest has maintained obdurate silence.

Parents of the child are requested by the police to identify the infant, who last night refused to disclose his identity, occupation and address, despite a grilling by Lt. "Patsy" Mullin.

According to Magistrates Kromer, Meredith, Cronin and Walzer, the case is unparalleled in Main Line police history. They declare the infant will not be released unless $10,000 bail is posted for his appearance at court in Norristown, and unless he promises never again to go joy-riding, without first qualifying for a driver's license and having his vehicle inspected.

Refuse Motor License

It was this morning learned that application for a mercantile license to sell automobiles in Narberth has been refused by borough council to Messrs. Messer and Musser, who planned to trade under the name of the Main Line Austin Motor Sales Company. Reason given: this pocket size car is a bad example for the youth of the land.

Less Than Half Required $500

Contributions to Narberth's Boy Scout fund, sponsored by the Fathers' Association, total $221.50 to date, according to Treasurer I. N. Wilson. The remittances have come from forty-eight people of the 1500 to whom personal appeals had been mailed.

The contributions are less than half the required amount of $500.

Since the recent appeal, several individuals here have asked, "Why do the Boy Scouts need funds?" The following is Mr. Wilson's answer:

"Unlike the great majority of Scout troops, which are sponsored by churches and hold their meetings in church buildings, the Narberth Troop is that rare thing—a community troop. It is dependent upon the community for financial support, without which the troop would cease to function."

"The following list of expenses must be met each year:

Lower Merion Downs Cheltenham High

First and Second Elevens Get Workout in 15-0 Victory.

RIDGE'S WORK GOOD

By Tommy Macklin

Lower Merion did not need their full strength to win their third start of the season last Saturday on the parched field of Cheltenham High School.

The final score, 15 to 0, did not show the relative strength of the two teams, as Coach Adam's second team played the entire third period. The first eleven had just time enough in the fourth quarter to make the game safe by taking the ball across for the second touchdown. As the final whistle blew the Maroon had the ball in scoring distance again and a few minutes extra would probably have increased the score.

Harry Frazer scored first for the Main Liners with a nice off-tackle play. Harry is adept at this type of maneuver, and he crossed the line after picking his way through narrow holes in the Cheltenham defense. Harry Taylor, and others, dived into one of Cheltenham's backs after he fumbled over the visitors' goal line and rang up another two points through the medium of a safety.

It took Dave Ridge, elongated half-back, to score the final six-pointer by taking an alien pass from the air and rushing sixty yards across the goal line. Dave's good work in handling the ball on the criss-cross formations helped the team throughout the game. He fumbled once or twice, but probably the dust clouds had something to do with it. You can't catch the ball unless you can see it.

If Adam does not make too many changes in the lineup we expect him to win the game against Haverford this Saturday by a couple of touchdowns at least. This prediction is based upon the fact that Adam's team is stronger and in better condition than is Coach Cornog's. If the Maroon team expects to walk on the field and walk off with an easy victory, then they will be rudely awakened before the first quarter is over.

The Maroon team is welded into a smooth-working combination now, and if the personnel is not changed they should carry the suburban championship banner above their heads before Thanksgiving time rolls around.

L. M. Junior High Meets First Defeat of Season

Lower Merion Junior High School had her goal crossed for the first time since 1928 when the strong second team from Swarthmore Prep came to town last Friday afternoon to win 7 to 2. Even then the home team should have won, had not a local fumble permitted the visitors to take the ball near the Orange and Black goal line.

This is the first defeat Coach Mattis has suffered since taking over the helm of the football team. Plenty of opportunities came the way of the local lads, but each time someone failed to take advantage of it, and thus the game ended in a defeat.

Harvey Buck and Mike Zengel gained the most ground for the local school, while the work of Mike Iccavelli at end was pleasing.

The league schedule gets under way next week when Lower Merion meets West Chester here at home on the 24th.

Football Schedule

Merion Golfer Plays Despite Casualty

There's a lot of talk about the mental hazards in golf, but Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, of Haverford, and star golfer of the Merion Cricket Club, was surely faced by a stiff one on the first day of play in the women's national golf tournament which began on Monday in Los Angeles.

On Sunday night Mrs. Barlow slipped and fell, breaking the big toe of her left foot. Undaunted, however, she borrowed a cane and gamely started on the eighteen holes that meant qualifying for the match play. Her total score for the eighteen was 97, which was a fine score.

Unfortunately not quite good enough to qualify. In fact, just a paltry five strokes over the 32 select ones. Among these was the Philadelphia star, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, three times a national champion.

Episcopal Victor

A first-period touchdown by Mata gave Episcopal Academy a 6-0 victory over Germantown Academy at Germantown. This win enabled the Churchmen to remain tied for first place with Friends' Central. Episcopal has won the interacademic crown for the past three years. This Friday's meeting between the two teams promises to provide some exciting football.

Friends' Central Ekes Out 2-Point Victory

Show Promise in Win Over Haverford School Eleven.

HAVE GOOD MATERIAL

Friends' Central School won another game last week to keep their schedule free from defeats during the current season. This last battle was a tough encounter with their old-time rivals, Haverford School. For the first time in many moons the boys from Overbrook won the decision in the last half with the aid of a safety, leaving the field with a 2-to-0 victory.

Coach Doug Crate, former Lafayette College star, with his able assistant, Folwell Scull, is making a strong drive for the Interacademic League championship. He may get it, too, for the first time in the history of the school, for he has some fine football material with which to work.

In the backfield the team has Quinlan from Haverford High, Blaker from Camden High, White from Lansdowne and Jim Funke, Abington's star of the past two years. To aid them are Brown and Sullivan, two fine half-backs.

On the line Jack Hinkle at left end and Ben Castree at tackle are boys who came over from Overbrook High. Frank Bayshore, of Lansdowne, takes care of the other tackle with Jack Earle alongside him at guard. George Hopkins at right guard with Ben Robertson, of Haverford High, at centre and Len Baker, from New Jersey, at right end completes a first-class line with plenty of power and weight.

Friends' Central opened the season with a 7-to-0 victory over Germantown Friends, a surprise to some who did not know how strong the Overbrook team was going to be this year.

It will be a good thing if Friends' Central can win the interacademic championship this year. Haverford School, Penn Charter and lately Episcopal have had a more or less monopoly on the situation, and it will make the going merrier if another school can give them strong enough bid for championship honors to make the league stronger. In addition, the coaches are young and capable and very popular with all who come in contact with them. Friends' Central football and other sports are in capable hands.

Montgomery School Ties

The match last week between Montgomery School and Chestnut Hill Academy resulted in a 7-7 tie. Both teams scored in the second period. Chestnut Hill tallied first when Hamerstrom crashed through centre. Montgomery scored when a long pass, Muller to Enders, was successful. Kutz came through with the goal which added the extra point.

Wynnewood Civic Elects New Directors

Definite Boundaries of Section Fixed at Recent Meeting.

ERECT STREET SIGNS

A definite fixing of the territorial limits of Wynnewood and an election of eleven new directors to serve until October, 1931, took place at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wynnewood Civic Association.

The new directors are J. H. R. Acker, Stephen G. Duncan, Walton Gibb, J. O. Hackenberg, L. Richard Kinnard, J. Bernard McGovern, Walter L. Morgan, Whitney Payne, H. Denny Roberts, Samuel C. Wagner, Jr. Horace C. Booz was elected to serve until 1932.

The association asks the co-operation of its members in alleviating the nuisance of overhanging foliage, requesting the trimming of trees so that there will be at least seven feet clearance under the worst conditions.

Ten additional street intersection signs will be erected in Wynnewood by the Committee on Street Signs. Arrangements have also been made with the State Highway Department to place "Wynnewood" signs on Lancaster Pike, and the Association hopes to make provision for similar signs on Montgomery Avenue and Wynnewood Road.

The boundaries of the section, which have never been definitely fixed before, were set to include the English Village, Wynnewoods and part of Minden Manor. The exact limits are defined as follows:

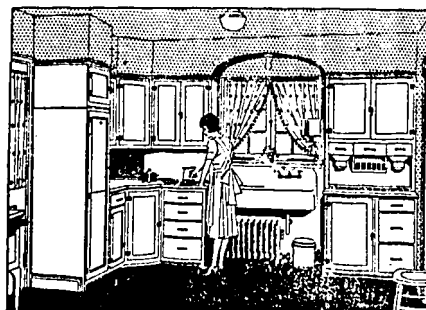

Beginning at the intersection of Church Road and Lancaster Avenue, thence east along the centre line of Lancaster Avenue to Wynnewood Road, thence west along and including both sides of Wynnewood Road to Argyle Road, thence south along the centre line of Argyle Road to Haverford Road, thence southeast along the centre line of Haverford Road to Remington Road, thence northeast along the centre line of Remington Road to Lancaster Avenue, thence west along the centre line of Lancaster Avenue to Brookwood Lane, thence a diagonal across the Shortridge property to the intersection of Wynnewood Road and Wynnewood Avenue, thence north along and including both sides of Wynnewood Avenue to Montgomery Avenue, thence west along and including both sides of Montgomery Avenue to Cherry Lane, thence northwest along and including both sides of Cherry Lane to Llanfair Road, thence southwest along and including both sides of Llanfair Road to Wister Road, thence along and including both sides of Wister Road to Owen Road, thence along and including both sides of Owen Road to Montgomery Avenue, thence west along the centre line of Montgomery Avenue to Church Road, and thence southwest along the centre line of Church Road to Lancaster Avenue, the place of beginning.

Another advantage of these tiny automobiles is that you can run off the road and hide in the weeds when a big bus comes along.

Don't Be LULLED into False Security

By Clothes That Look Clean!

Have Them ZORIC Cleaned

Seeing isn't always believing—when health is at stake! Those garments of yours may look ever so clean, yet actually be contaminated. Our new Zoric Garment Cleaning System which we have recently installed offers 100 per cent. hygienic safety from this risk.

Your garments are being handled with the best of care when you send them to the St. Mary's Laundry, Inc., to be Zoric Cleaned. They are bathed lavishly in this secret process of cleaning garments. Zoric Fluid does not contain any minerals and therefore garments cleaned the Zoric way are absolutely cleaned through and through and stay cleaned longer, because there are no mineral deposits, such as oil and grease, to allow dust and dirt to settle in them.

When you are thinking of having your garments cleaned, think of Zoric Garment Cleaning System.

Call Ardmore 175 or 3270 and our salesman will be at your service.

Narberth Did Well in Independent Ball

Thirty-three Victories Gained During Season in Fifty-eight Games.

FLECK BATTING CHAMP

By John Uberti.
During the year of 1930 the Narberth baseball team, again champions of the Main Line League, have engaged in fifty-eight games to better by fifteen contests the list of engagements for 1929. Moreover, during this season Narberth went out of the borough in search of games on foreign diamonds. In this errand tour the borough diamond kings suffered seven losses in fourteen matches, one ending in a tie.

The adventures of the Davismen in this venturesome year carried them around an extensive radius that sent them as far west as Downingtown and Coatesville, to the shore for their Beach Haven debut, and many outlying locations where they met powerful baseball machines whose engines on many occasions were successfully battered into submission.

Narberth overcame thirty-three ball clubs during the past year for clean-cut victories, bowed in defeat to twenty-three and forced two other outstanding units into a deadlock. The most propitious showing was displayed against the independent clubs. Among the outstanding teams who have fallen a prey to Narberth's baseball prowess are Manoa A. C., the Columbia Turners, E. G. Budd Company, Gregorian C. C., and many others who have felt the sting of Narberth's droning swipes that sent them tumbling down to drastic defeats.

Recapitulation of the records, however, discloses the numerous defeats due directly to the keen competition from the Main Line League foes during the second half, when Bryn Mawr, a wrecker of titular hopes, and Dun- kirk, runners-up for the second victory, claimed the bulk of the league victories. Such clubs as Hilldale and Clearview, both of whom have turned down the boroughs twice this year, and the Colored House of David, potent clan from the Middle-West, are responsible for the unimpressive showing by the champions this season.

Fleck Wins Laurels
A new batting champion was crowned in Narberth this year, taking the title from a field of over twenty-eight contenders. Vernon (Vernie) Fleck was declared the champion batter of the borough club when he turned in a .423 card that enabled him to beat out Mickey Burns, his closest rival, who trailed the veteran of baseball with a return of .407.

The computation of the batting averages as revealed for the first-half season found Vernie Fleck finishing at the wire second to Joe McEntee, Holy Cross' baseball genius and star first-baseman of the Narberth Club. At that time Fleck held an average of .470, while McEntee led the pack with .567.

Fleck, who set another batting record during the past year by hitting .500 for thirty-one games, met his Waterloo during the championship series during which he went into a slump that found him hitting for an average of .182. This hitting depression by Fleck during the series gradually stripped him of his high honors with the willow, giving him a .457 card for activities of the first two titular contests, and .438 for the second pair of tilts, not to mention the final debut which found him enlisted in that well-known society which assumes the appellation of "Order of the Collar."

Mickey Burns, Narberth's eminent catcher, found little difficulty in finishing second, for since the time Mickey registered .420, his peak return of the year, Ray Young assumed the duties behind the mask when doctor's orders kept Mickey away from baseball due to osteopathic treatments for his throwing arm.

Vernie Fleck finished third in the batting race last year and seventh in the 1928 season. Johnny Gillespie and Bob Gilliland won the championship in 1928 and 1929, respectively.

For the championship series alone, the most laudible batter was Narberth's substitute catcher, Ray Young, who led the sticks with an average of .417, which fine percentage enabled him to leave the .200 zone for the whole season and climb to .308. George Babb batted for an average of .667 in the title play and Jeffries for .500, but each man only played in one game of the series.

Attends Regional Conference

Miss Blanche E. Meeser, of Woodbine Avenue, Narberth, and a member of the Lower Merion Board of Health, motored to Atlantic City last week to attend the first Northeastern Regional Conference of the Professional and Business Clubs which met at the Hotel Chelsea. Miss Meeser is president of the Professional and Business Woman's Club of Philadelphia, Incorporated, and is a member of the Main Line Professional and Business Woman's Club.

Manages Egyptian

Denniston Berkery, manager of P. J. Lawler's Sixty-ninth Street Theatre, is directing affairs at the Egyptian in Cynwyd for a couple of weeks while Joseph Conway, managing director of the Cynwyd playhouse, is away on his honeymoon. Mr. Berkery, who is commander of the Upper Darby Post of the American Legion, has been identified with the show business for years, and has managed the Sixty-ninth Street Theatre since its inception.

Urge Preservation of Penn Valley's Beauty

Preservation of the natural beauty of the Penn Valley section and maintaining bridge paths and dirt roads was urged by various speakers at a meeting of the Penn Valley Association held at the Montgomery School on Tuesday evening.

"While we need and want more improved roads in Penn Valley," said W. D. Fuller, president of the association who presided, "we also wish to preserve the rural atmosphere which is one of our greatest assets and which is lacking in many suburban sections."

Tentative plans were discussed for the formation of a Woman's Community Club of Penn Valley. Organization will take place within the next few weeks when Mrs. Eugene Jordan will call a meeting of the women of the community.

The chief address of the evening was made by Peter C. Hess, treasurer of Lower Merion Township, who explained the organization of the township government and described the purposes for which taxpayers' money is expended.

Merion Title and Trust Exhibits Locomotive

A six-foot working model of an electric locomotive was on exhibit at the Merion Title and Trust Co. all last week. Its dozen wheels revolving, and driving rods sliding along at a good clip called forth many words of praise at the efficiency and close attention to detail this model displayed.

The Pennsylvania Railroad obligingly loaned the bank this interesting engine and the association of the Main Line to the first suburban banking institution on it gave rise to the idea of coupling the P. R. R. exhibit with advertising for the local bank. This display, as were the others that the bank used recently, was arranged with a black velvet curtain background and was well lighted to set it off to good effect.

The Merion Title will continue these object lesson exhibits as long as the interest of the public encourages them. The former two advertisements were to show the value of thrift by use of a blacksmith's shop and by a scene showing sailing ships. Inside bank advertising on such an extensive scale is rather new and the results are being watched carefully. The thousands of people who have enjoyed the three displays so far have heartily voiced their approval.

Local Post Endorses Child Health Center

Resolution of Commendation Is Adopted at Recent Meeting.

Commendation of the work of the Narberth Child Health Centre and of those who are responsible for it was expressed in a resolution adopted by the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, at its recent meeting.

The resolution reads as follows: WHEREAS, The American Legion is committed to the policy of fostering and endorsing all projects conducive to the welfare, spiritual and physical, of the youth of America, and

WHEREAS, The Harold D. Speakman Post, of Narberth, Pa., acting in complete sympathy with this policy, is constantly active in the work of promoting the welfare of our future citizenry. Recognizing the fact that the Borough of Narberth has for some time past enjoyed and profited by the establishment of a Child Welfare Clinic and further realizing the incalculable benefit which will accrue to the borough, the Commonwealth and the nation as a result of the safeguarding of the health of the children of this community:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: That the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of the American Legion, Department of Pennsylvania, expresses its fullest endorsement of this project and desires to express to the various organizations which fostered and made possible the Child Welfare Clinic, and to the Council and borough officials, and to the physicians and nurses who have generously given of their time and professional skill unqualified and sincere appreciation, and that the Harold D. Speakman Post extends an offer of co-operation in this pre-eminent commendable undertaking.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Council, persons and organizations herein mentioned.

ARTHUR L. COOKE, Commander.

Attest: JOHN A. MOWRER, JR., Adjutant.

Record Hit

It's an out and out dance masterpiece, this new record by Ted Weems and His Orchestra. On the one side is "Sing," from the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "The Dough Boy." On the other side is
"I Still Get a Thrill." Both numbers are full of that smart, precise rhythm for which Ted
Weems and his boys are famous.
And that rich, subtle mellowness of tone, too! We'll be glad to play any of these new records for you on the new Victor Radio with

Real Estate and Building

Settlement Made for Main Line Properties

Real Estate Brokers Report Continuing Activity in Section.

WEEK'S SALES LISTED

Activity in Main Line real estate has been maintained during the past week. The following sales and settlements were reported during the week by realty brokers:

Chandler and Rankin report that settlement has been made by Harry L. Hawkins for the Colonial residence at 316 Kent Road, Cynwyd, recently sold by this office for the owner, J. W. Crolley.

A stone and clapboard Colonial home and garage at 513 Revere Road, Merion Park, has been sold by Chandler and Rankin for John H. Link to Roy R. Coffin. This property was held for sale at $23,000.

Settlement has been made for the property recently sold by Runk & Marsh for Flanigen & Flanigen. The property is a stone and hollow tile early American type residence situated on about one-half acre of ground on Willow Burn Road, Villanova. It was held for sale at $29,000.

Wallace & Warner announce the sale for the Girard Trust Company of lot consisting of one and one-quarter acres on the estate of Isaac H. Clothier, being developed by Wallace & Warner, to Mrs. Alexander T. Slade.

The property has a frontage on Ballymore Road and Wynnewood Road and was held for sale at $25,000.

J. Howard Mecke, Jr., representing Charles L. Thomas, has rented to Mrs. E. F. Saxman the large residence on the three acres situated at the corner of Wanner Road and Pugh Road, in the Colonial Village, north of Wayne, for a period of years.

McMullin & McMullin have sold for Philip S. Kelly, of West Chester, his property consisting of nine acres of ground located just south of the West Chester Pike, on the concrete road leading to Westtown. The Chester Creek flows through the property, which is next to the historic Dutts Woolen Mills. It is also adjacent to the property of T. Van C. Phillips, of Westtown. The purchaser is Andrew F. Gallagher, of White Horse, who will hold the property for future development. The property was held for sale at $10,000.

Hall, Sparks & Harris have sold for Henry J. McLean a plot of ground on the southerly side of Lakeside Road, Wynnewood, 140 feet west of Midfield Road, with a frontage of 120 feet, including an all-stone English style residence of twelve rooms, three baths and two-car garage, to be erected by Fred E. Rowe at a total cost close to $30,000. The purchaser, J. Howard Mitchell, will occupy the home when completed in the early spring.

Mirkil, Valdes & Co. announced this week that settlement has been effected for the recent sale of the Colonial residence at 354 Merion Road, Merion, by Mrs. Augusta K. Casanave to James W. Birch, who is to occupy the property as his residence after extensive alterations. It contains sixteen rooms, three baths and a two-car detached garage. The sale was made by Mirkil, Valdes & Co.

A Colonial house with sixteen rooms and three baths and a two-car detached garage, at 354 Merion Road, Merion, has been sold by Mirkil, Valdes & Co., for Mrs. Augusta K. Casanave to James W. Birch. The price was not disclosed. After extensive alterations the property will be occupied by the purchaser as his residence.

McMullin & McMullin have sold for the Bryn Mawr Trust Company, trustee for Alice J. Wynne and Paul A. and Earl R. James, their property located 106 Birch Avenue, Bala. The improvements consist of a stone residence containing 12 rooms and 3 baths together with 4-car garage and a lot of ground containing about one-half acre. The purchaser is Mrs. James D. Campbell, who will occupy the property for her residence. The property was held for sale at $25,000.

James M. Grundy, of Ardmore, reports settlement has been made by Hugh Stanton Gilhams, President of J. S. Ivin's Son, Inc., for the residence and ground purchased in Minden Manor, Wynnewood. Mr. Gilhams will make extensive improvements on the grounds, which have stream and woods.

James M. Grundy has sold for Catherine C. Hart to the MacVaugh Construction Company a two-acre home site on Tunbridge Road, Merion Golf Club section, Haverford, for the consideration of $22,000. The site adjoins the homes of C. Addison Harris, Jr., Milton W. Holden and the John Barnes estate. The purchaser will improve the site at once with a large English type residence.

Wallace and Warner announce the sale for the Girard Trust Company of lot consisting of 2 3/4 acres with pond on the estate of Isaac H. Clothier, Wynnewood, being developed by Wallace and Warner, to Mrs. John Rogers Maxwell. The lot has a frontage on Clothier Road and Morris Avenue and adjoins the home of Miss Caroline Clothier.

McMullin & McMullin have sold for Major Harry L. Smith his property located 542 Hansell Road, Wynnewood. The improvements consist of a tile and plastered residence containing 12 rooms and 3 baths together with garage and about one-half acre of land. The purchaser was Mrs. Rosalie Jones Whitney who will occupy the property for her residence. The property was held for sale at $25,000.

September Building Is Below Last Year

$273,135 Less Work Handled by L. M. Building Department, Report Shows.

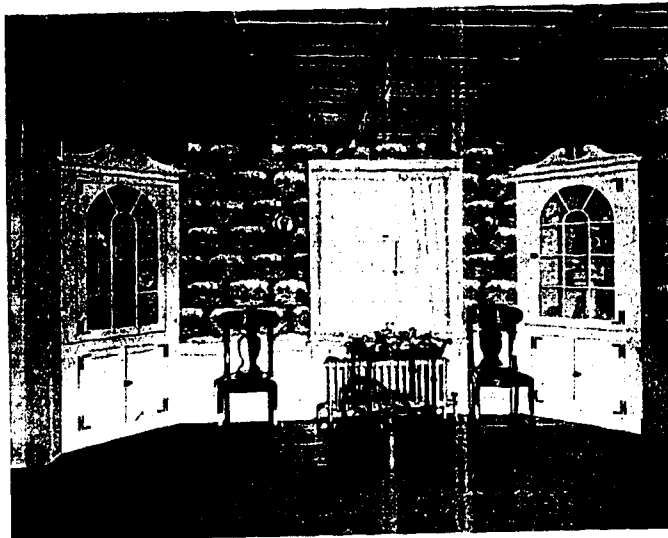

The report of the Building Department of Lower Merion Township for the month of September, made public this week by Building Inspector C. E. Rahn, shows a total of 56 permits issued during the month for operations amounting to $273,135.
